

WILLIMANTIC

What Is Going on Tonight.
Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association, K. of P. Hall.
Eastern Star Lodge, No. 44, A. F. and M. Masonic Hall.
Francis S. Long, W. R. C. No. 28, A. R. Hall.

METHODIST SOCIETY'S BUILDING.

To be of Brick, One Story, 20x38 Feet.

Architect A. P. Sharpe's plans for the new stone building to be erected by the local Methodist church on Church street, call for a one-story brick building 20x38 feet. The lot which is now 4 1/2 feet higher than the sidewalk, will be cut down to the sidewalk level. The cellar is to be 12x38 feet. The plans anticipate one story with a center front entrance. On either side are plate glass windows 12x38 inches. On the church side are four windows 48 inches square. The gravel roof is to pitch slightly and the building will be heated by a furnace.

Attached Interest in Saloon.
M. E. Lincoln, trustee for an insolvent contractor of this city, Tuesday brought a civil action against James S. Donahue for about $200, the balance due for building his house. Deputy Sheriff Greenblatt placed an attachment on Donahue's interest in a saloon on Railroad street and Judge James A. Shea gave an officer's receipt for the attachment.

Large Delegation Going to Wildwood Park Meeting.

To the outing, August 14, of the Eastern Connecticut Boards of Trade and Business Men's associations at Wildwood park, Willimantic will send a large delegation of representative citizens. The matter will be talked over at a special meeting of the local business men's association at the Board of Trade rooms Thursday evening.

Chaplin Appropriates $500 For State Roads.

At a special town meeting, Monday evening, the voters of Chaplin appropriated $500 for a section of the state road from the paper mill to G. W. England's property, providing the state builds the road during the current year.

Birthday Party and Straw-ride.

The ninth birthday party of Sabra Houghton was held Monday afternoon at the Maple grove at Mrs. J. E. Houghton's home, 167 Pleasant

Utterly Wretched

Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy Was Found.
Miss Minerva Reminger, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and beef tea because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies, but obtained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured. Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases. Get it today in any liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsapars." Hood's Sarsaparilla, 75 Cent.

Going to Denver.
Arthur Chaffee of Leicester avenue leaves Friday for Denver. Mr. Chaffee is a delegate to a convention of Knights Templars to be held in that city next week and is at the head of the state commandery.

At Summer Home.

Dewitt Lockman of New York has been spending a few days at the Lockman home in South Windham.

Brief Mention.

Attorney George E. Hinman and family have returned from their vacation at Great Barrington, Mass.

Miss Leola Franklin of Westfield, Mass., is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George B. McCracken, on Mountain street.

Mr. Elmore, formerly of the firm of Elmore & Shepard, of this city underwent an operation at a hospital at Waterbury, last Saturday.

The Hatch Cadets, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Capt. Raymond Gates commanding, have voted to purchase new dress uniforms.

Judge Shea of the probate court has appointed Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee administrator of the estate of his father, the late Edwin Bugbee.

W. P. Nichols, of the New London exchange, is in charge of the Willimantic telephone exchange during the absence of the local manager, A. L. Weatherhead, who is at Miller's Falls with his family.

Dr. E. B. Thompson, who a few years ago, purchased the Dennis Shea farm at Great Barrington, has exchanged the property for New York real estate, Augustus Tishman of New York succeeding Dr. Thompson as owner of the Shea farm. Dr. Thompson and family will go to the metropolis to reside in the fall.

Personals.

Frank Powell was in Hartford on Tuesday.

Udgerman David Ahern was in Hartford Tuesday.

H. L. Frost of Hartford was in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Ada Whitling of Storrs was a local visitor yesterday.

Michael Hicks has gone to Hartford for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallup are in Hartford for a few days.

William Foran left Tuesday for New York on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoey of Union

street, the preface to the happy event was a jolly straw ride to Lebanon, followed by picnic pleasures including refreshments. The following were present: Lenore Kinsman, Alice Peterson, Mildred Peterson, May Moran, Doris Ayers, Lester Loomis, Oswin Doolittle and Desmond Oldershaw of this city and Laura, Lucy and Alfred Green of Columbia.

FUNERAL.

Sister M. Angelberta.

The funeral of Sister Angelberta, of the funeral of Sister Angelberta, Tuesday morning.

The solemn high requiem mass was sung by Rev. T. J. Bannon, John A. Dooley of St. Mary's church, South Coventry assisting as deacon. Rev. P. J. Mooney, of St. Joseph's church as sub-deacon. Rev. J. J. Papillon of St. Mary's church was master of ceremonies. The bearers were James Haggerty, William J. Sweeney, William Smith and Thomas Moriarty. During the mass hymns were sung by Miss Agnes O'Neill, organist Mrs. Henry Mathieu, and Miss McShea. An impressive, slight was the presence at the services of eighty nuns, accompanied by these Mother Superiors of their respective convents: Rev. Mother Benoit, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernadine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernardine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Thersilla, St. Joseph's.

Rev. Father Bannon eulogized Sister Angelberta who had devoted her energies to the cause of the church and education. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in the plot reserved for the Sisters. Rev. John Dooley read the committal service assisted by Rev. T. J. Bannon. Seated in the sanctuary during the mass were the following clergy: Rev. John Stapleton, Taftville; Rev. Joseph Cooney, Taftville; Rev. C. J. Lemieux, St. Mary's Willimantic; Rev. P. L. Massicot, Taftville; Rev. U. O. Belletre, Taftville.

Mrs. Mary Sheehan.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Sheehan was held from her home, 75 Chapin street Tuesday. A requiem high mass was sung at St. Joseph's church by Rev. P. J. Mooney. The bearers were Daniel Shea, of Hartford, P. J. Hurlin, Timothy Sullivan and Michael Hurlin of this city. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Jan Zabiansky.

The funeral of Jan Zabiansky was held at his home at Mansfield, four corners Tuesday afternoon. Burial, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city, was in the cemetery at Willimantic.

Nellie M. Conant.

The funeral of Nellie M. Conant, was held Tuesday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Phoebe M. Haman, at Mansfield, Rev. E. H. Turncliffe, of Eagleville, officiating. The burial was in Toland, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Have Outing at Camp Ground—Hear of Work in Local and Foreign Fields.

The Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Willimantic Methodist church had a very pleasant outing at the camp ground Tuesday. The ladies took basket lunches. A feature of the meeting was an interesting missionary address by Mrs. J. E. Reed, of Worcester, Mass., who has charge of the children's work at the camp meeting. Members of the local Methodist Missionary societies also contributed valuable papers on the work in the home and foreign fields.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Miss Mary Peacock Stricken While Returning From Picture Show.

Monday night when Miss Mary Peacock, aged about 40, died suddenly at her home 74 Pleasant street. Miss Peacock, with her sister, Sarah, had been to a moving picture exhibition. While crossing the foot bridge Miss Peacock fainted. Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton and Edward Luson went to her assistance and Dr. R. C. White was called. He found Miss Peacock's condition serious and she was soon taken to her home where she lived only a short time, apoplexy, with a secondary cause of indigestion being ascribed as the cause of death. Miss Peacock was employed in the window room of the American Thread company and was a member of the local lodge of the United Order of the Golden Cross. Her sudden death came as a severe shock to relatives and acquaintances. Miss Peacock was born in St. Johns, New Brunswick and had resided in Willimantic for a number of years. She was the daughter of David and Catherine (Chaffee) Peacock and is survived by her father, David Peacock, three sisters, Sarah, Elizabeth Catherine, and by two brothers, Duncan and David.

Going to Denver.

Arthur Chaffee of Leicester avenue leaves Friday for Denver. Mr. Chaffee is a delegate to a convention of Knights Templars to be held in that city next week and is at the head of the state commandery.

At Summer Home.

Dewitt Lockman of New York has been spending a few days at the Lockman home in South Windham.

Brief Mention.

Attorney George E. Hinman and family have returned from their vacation at Great Barrington, Mass.

Miss Leola Franklin of Westfield, Mass., is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George B. McCracken, on Mountain street.

Mr. Elmore, formerly of the firm of Elmore & Shepard, of this city underwent an operation at a hospital at Waterbury, last Saturday.

The Hatch Cadets, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Capt. Raymond Gates commanding, have voted to purchase new dress uniforms.

Judge Shea of the probate court has appointed Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee administrator of the estate of his father, the late Edwin Bugbee.

W. P. Nichols, of the New London exchange, is in charge of the Willimantic telephone exchange during the absence of the local manager, A. L. Weatherhead, who is at Miller's Falls with his family.

Dr. E. B. Thompson, who a few years ago, purchased the Dennis Shea farm at Great Barrington, has exchanged the property for New York real estate, Augustus Tishman of New York succeeding Dr. Thompson as owner of the Shea farm. Dr. Thompson and family will go to the metropolis to reside in the fall.

Personals.

Frank Powell was in Hartford on Tuesday.

Udgerman David Ahern was in Hartford Tuesday.

H. L. Frost of Hartford was in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Ada Whitling of Storrs was a local visitor yesterday.

Michael Hicks has gone to Hartford for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallup are in Hartford for a few days.

William Foran left Tuesday for New York on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoey of Union

street, the preface to the happy event was a jolly straw ride to Lebanon, followed by picnic pleasures including refreshments. The following were present: Lenore Kinsman, Alice Peterson, Mildred Peterson, May Moran, Doris Ayers, Lester Loomis, Oswin Doolittle and Desmond Oldershaw of this city and Laura, Lucy and Alfred Green of Columbia.

FUNERAL.

Sister M. Angelberta.

The funeral of Sister Angelberta, of the funeral of Sister Angelberta, Tuesday morning.

The solemn high requiem mass was sung by Rev. T. J. Bannon, John A. Dooley of St. Mary's church, South Coventry assisting as deacon. Rev. P. J. Mooney, of St. Joseph's church as sub-deacon. Rev. J. J. Papillon of St. Mary's church was master of ceremonies. The bearers were James Haggerty, William J. Sweeney, William Smith and Thomas Moriarty. During the mass hymns were sung by Miss Agnes O'Neill, organist Mrs. Henry Mathieu, and Miss McShea. An impressive, slight was the presence at the services of eighty nuns, accompanied by these Mother Superiors of their respective convents: Rev. Mother Benoit, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernadine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernardine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Thersilla, St. Joseph's.

Rev. Father Bannon eulogized Sister Angelberta who had devoted her energies to the cause of the church and education. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in the plot reserved for the Sisters. Rev. John Dooley read the committal service assisted by Rev. T. J. Bannon. Seated in the sanctuary during the mass were the following clergy: Rev. John Stapleton, Taftville; Rev. Joseph Cooney, Taftville; Rev. C. J. Lemieux, St. Mary's Willimantic; Rev. P. L. Massicot, Taftville; Rev. U. O. Belletre, Taftville.

Mrs. Mary Sheehan.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Sheehan was held from her home, 75 Chapin street Tuesday. A requiem high mass was sung at St. Joseph's church by Rev. P. J. Mooney. The bearers were Daniel Shea, of Hartford, P. J. Hurlin, Timothy Sullivan and Michael Hurlin of this city. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Jan Zabiansky.

The funeral of Jan Zabiansky was held at his home at Mansfield, four corners Tuesday afternoon. Burial, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city, was in the cemetery at Willimantic.

Nellie M. Conant.

The funeral of Nellie M. Conant, was held Tuesday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Phoebe M. Haman, at Mansfield, Rev. E. H. Turncliffe, of Eagleville, officiating. The burial was in Toland, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Have Outing at Camp Ground—Hear of Work in Local and Foreign Fields.

The Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Willimantic Methodist church had a very pleasant outing at the camp ground Tuesday. The ladies took basket lunches. A feature of the meeting was an interesting missionary address by Mrs. J. E. Reed, of Worcester, Mass., who has charge of the children's work at the camp meeting. Members of the local Methodist Missionary societies also contributed valuable papers on the work in the home and foreign fields.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Miss Mary Peacock Stricken While Returning From Picture Show.

Monday night when Miss Mary Peacock, aged about 40, died suddenly at her home 74 Pleasant street. Miss Peacock, with her sister, Sarah, had been to a moving picture exhibition. While crossing the foot bridge Miss Peacock fainted. Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton and Edward Luson went to her assistance and Dr. R. C. White was called. He found Miss Peacock's condition serious and she was soon taken to her home where she lived only a short time, apoplexy, with a secondary cause of indigestion being ascribed as the cause of death. Miss Peacock was employed in the window room of the American Thread company and was a member of the local lodge of the United Order of the Golden Cross. Her sudden death came as a severe shock to relatives and acquaintances. Miss Peacock was born in St. Johns, New Brunswick and had resided in Willimantic for a number of years. She was the daughter of David and Catherine (Chaffee) Peacock and is survived by her father, David Peacock, three sisters, Sarah, Elizabeth Catherine, and by two brothers, Duncan and David.

Going to Denver.

Arthur Chaffee of Leicester avenue leaves Friday for Denver. Mr. Chaffee is a delegate to a convention of Knights Templars to be held in that city next week and is at the head of the state commandery.

At Summer Home.

Dewitt Lockman of New York has been spending a few days at the Lockman home in South Windham.

Brief Mention.

Attorney George E. Hinman and family have returned from their vacation at Great Barrington, Mass.

Miss Leola Franklin of Westfield, Mass., is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George B. McCracken, on Mountain street.

Mr. Elmore, formerly of the firm of Elmore & Shepard, of this city underwent an operation at a hospital at Waterbury, last Saturday.

The Hatch Cadets, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Capt. Raymond Gates commanding, have voted to purchase new dress uniforms.

Judge Shea of the probate court has appointed Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee administrator of the estate of his father, the late Edwin Bugbee.

W. P. Nichols, of the New London exchange, is in charge of the Willimantic telephone exchange during the absence of the local manager, A. L. Weatherhead, who is at Miller's Falls with his family.

Dr. E. B. Thompson, who a few years ago, purchased the Dennis Shea farm at Great Barrington, has exchanged the property for New York real estate, Augustus Tishman of New York succeeding Dr. Thompson as owner of the Shea farm. Dr. Thompson and family will go to the metropolis to reside in the fall.

Personals.

Frank Powell was in Hartford on Tuesday.

Udgerman David Ahern was in Hartford Tuesday.

H. L. Frost of Hartford was in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Ada Whitling of Storrs was a local visitor yesterday.

Michael Hicks has gone to Hartford for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallup are in Hartford for a few days.

William Foran left Tuesday for New York on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoey of Union

street, the preface to the happy event was a jolly straw ride to Lebanon, followed by picnic pleasures including refreshments. The following were present: Lenore Kinsman, Alice Peterson, Mildred Peterson, May Moran, Doris Ayers, Lester Loomis, Oswin Doolittle and Desmond Oldershaw of this city and Laura, Lucy and Alfred Green of Columbia.

FUNERAL.

Sister M. Angelberta.

The funeral of Sister Angelberta, of the funeral of Sister Angelberta, Tuesday morning.

The solemn high requiem mass was sung by Rev. T. J. Bannon, John A. Dooley of St. Mary's church, South Coventry assisting as deacon. Rev. P. J. Mooney, of St. Joseph's church as sub-deacon. Rev. J. J. Papillon of St. Mary's church was master of ceremonies. The bearers were James Haggerty, William J. Sweeney, William Smith and Thomas Moriarty. During the mass hymns were sung by Miss Agnes O'Neill, organist Mrs. Henry Mathieu, and Miss McShea. An impressive, slight was the presence at the services of eighty nuns, accompanied by these Mother Superiors of their respective convents: Rev. Mother Benoit, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernadine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernardine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Thersilla, St. Joseph's.

Rev. Father Bannon eulogized Sister Angelberta who had devoted her energies to the cause of the church and education. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in the plot reserved for the Sisters. Rev. John Dooley read the committal service assisted by Rev. T. J. Bannon. Seated in the sanctuary during the mass were the following clergy: Rev. John Stapleton, Taftville; Rev. Joseph Cooney, Taftville; Rev. C. J. Lemieux, St. Mary's Willimantic; Rev. P. L. Massicot, Taftville; Rev. U. O. Belletre, Taftville.

Mrs. Mary Sheehan.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Sheehan was held from her home, 75 Chapin street Tuesday. A requiem high mass was sung at St. Joseph's church by Rev. P. J. Mooney. The bearers were Daniel Shea, of Hartford, P. J. Hurlin, Timothy Sullivan and Michael Hurlin of this city. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Jan Zabiansky.

The funeral of Jan Zabiansky was held at his home at Mansfield, four corners Tuesday afternoon. Burial, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city, was in the cemetery at Willimantic.

Nellie M. Conant.

The funeral of Nellie M. Conant, was held Tuesday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Phoebe M. Haman, at Mansfield, Rev. E. H. Turncliffe, of Eagleville, officiating. The burial was in Toland, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Have Outing at Camp Ground—Hear of Work in Local and Foreign Fields.

The Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Willimantic Methodist church had a very pleasant outing at the camp ground Tuesday. The ladies took basket lunches. A feature of the meeting was an interesting missionary address by Mrs. J. E. Reed, of Worcester, Mass., who has charge of the children's work at the camp meeting. Members of the local Methodist Missionary societies also contributed valuable papers on the work in the home and foreign fields.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Miss Mary Peacock Stricken While Returning From Picture Show.

Monday night when Miss Mary Peacock, aged about 40, died suddenly at her home 74 Pleasant street. Miss Peacock, with her sister, Sarah, had been to a moving picture exhibition. While crossing the foot bridge Miss Peacock fainted. Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton and Edward Luson went to her assistance and Dr. R. C. White was called. He found Miss Peacock's condition serious and she was soon taken to her home where she lived only a short time, apoplexy, with a secondary cause of indigestion being ascribed as the cause of death. Miss Peacock was employed in the window room of the American Thread company and was a member of the local lodge of the United Order of the Golden Cross. Her sudden death came as a severe shock to relatives and acquaintances. Miss Peacock was born in St. Johns, New Brunswick and had resided in Willimantic for a number of years. She was the daughter of David and Catherine (Chaffee) Peacock and is survived by her father, David Peacock, three sisters, Sarah, Elizabeth Catherine, and by two brothers, Duncan and David.

Going to Denver.

Arthur Chaffee of Leicester avenue leaves Friday for Denver. Mr. Chaffee is a delegate to a convention of Knights Templars to be held in that city next week and is at the head of the state commandery.

At Summer Home.

Dewitt Lockman of New York has been spending a few days at the Lockman home in South Windham.

Brief Mention.

Attorney George E. Hinman and family have returned from their vacation at Great Barrington, Mass.

Miss Leola Franklin of Westfield, Mass., is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George B. McCracken, on Mountain street.

Mr. Elmore, formerly of the firm of Elmore & Shepard, of this city underwent an operation at a hospital at Waterbury, last Saturday.

The Hatch Cadets, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Capt. Raymond Gates commanding, have voted to purchase new dress uniforms.

Judge Shea of the probate court has appointed Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee administrator of the estate of his father, the late Edwin Bugbee.

W. P. Nichols, of the New London exchange, is in charge of the Willimantic telephone exchange during the absence of the local manager, A. L. Weatherhead, who is at Miller's Falls with his family.

Dr. E. B. Thompson, who a few years ago, purchased the Dennis Shea farm at Great Barrington, has exchanged the property for New York real estate, Augustus Tishman of New York succeeding Dr. Thompson as owner of the Shea farm. Dr. Thompson and family will go to the metropolis to reside in the fall.

Personals.

Frank Powell was in Hartford on Tuesday.

Udgerman David Ahern was in Hartford Tuesday.

H. L. Frost of Hartford was in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Ada Whitling of Storrs was a local visitor yesterday.

Michael Hicks has gone to Hartford for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallup are in Hartford for a few days.

William Foran left Tuesday for New York on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoey of Union

street, the preface to the happy event was a jolly straw ride to Lebanon, followed by picnic pleasures including refreshments. The following were present: Lenore Kinsman, Alice Peterson, Mildred Peterson, May Moran, Doris Ayers, Lester Loomis, Oswin Doolittle and Desmond Oldershaw of this city and Laura, Lucy and Alfred Green of Columbia.

FUNERAL.

Sister M. Angelberta.

The funeral of Sister Angelberta, of the funeral of Sister Angelberta, Tuesday morning.

The solemn high requiem mass was sung by Rev. T. J. Bannon, John A. Dooley of St. Mary's church, South Coventry assisting as deacon. Rev. P. J. Mooney, of St. Joseph's church as sub-deacon. Rev. J. J. Papillon of St. Mary's church was master of ceremonies. The bearers were James Haggerty, William J. Sweeney, William Smith and Thomas Moriarty. During the mass hymns were sung by Miss Agnes O'Neill, organist Mrs. Henry Mathieu, and Miss McShea. An impressive, slight was the presence at the services of eighty nuns, accompanied by these Mother Superiors of their respective convents: Rev. Mother Benoit, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernadine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Bernardine, Taftville; Rev. Mother Thersilla, St. Joseph's.

Rev. Father Bannon eulogized Sister Angelberta who had devoted her energies to the cause of the church and education. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in the plot reserved for the Sisters. Rev. John Dooley read the committal service assisted by Rev. T. J. Bannon. Seated in the sanctuary during the mass were the following clergy: Rev. John Stapleton, Taftville; Rev. Joseph Cooney, Taftville; Rev. C. J. Lemieux, St. Mary's Willimantic; Rev. P. L. Massicot, Taftville; Rev. U. O. Belletre, Taftville.

Mrs. Mary Sheehan.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Sheehan was held from her home, 75 Chapin street Tuesday. A requiem high mass was sung at St. Joseph's church by Rev. P. J. Mooney. The bearers were Daniel Shea, of Hartford, P. J. Hurlin, Timothy Sullivan and Michael Hurlin of this city. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Jan Zabiansky.

The funeral of Jan Zabiansky was held at his home at Mansfield, four corners Tuesday afternoon. Burial, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city, was in the cemetery at Willimantic.

Nellie M. Conant.

The funeral of Nellie M. Conant, was held Tuesday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Phoebe M. Haman, at Mansfield, Rev. E. H. Turncliffe, of Eagleville, officiating. The burial was in Toland, in charge of Undertaker H. N. Fenn, of this city.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Have Outing at Camp Ground—Hear of Work in Local and Foreign Fields.

The Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Willimantic Methodist church had a very pleasant outing at the camp ground Tuesday. The ladies took basket lunches. A feature of the meeting was an interesting missionary address by Mrs. J. E. Reed, of Worcester, Mass., who has charge of the children's work at the camp meeting. Members of the local Methodist Missionary societies also contributed valuable papers on the work in the home and foreign fields.

DIED SUDDENLY.